<li>kodikuthimala: is a scenic hill station located in the Malappuram district of Kerala, India

The peak has an elevation of 540 meters (1,770 ft) and is the highest point in the Amminikkadan hills.

The name Kodikuthimala comes from the British, who hoisted a flag ("kodi kuthi" in Malayalam) on the hilltop during a survey.

The hill station offers stunning views from a watchtower located at the peak. The surrounding area has been earmarked by the Tourism Department for development. The trail is also popular for hiking and birding.

The area is considered a moderate hike, taking nearly four hours to complete the trail. It is accessible from Perinthalmanna, via Amminikkad.
